

ASTRONG WOMAN

To those who underestimate her
So don't think that
She's weak or helpless
Cause now
She has become wild
From the delicacy
She used to wear
And don't think that
She has fallen to the ground
And never wake up,
Give her some time
And see
How she floats above the earth
Like a rose with bare thorns
Even though
Her wings have been crushed,
But she still has the power
To span the whole world
She has a broken heart but
She knows how to flowering
New hopes for herself
From this broken heart.
